White Spirit

White Spirit is a high-quality solvent commonly used as a paint thinner and general-purpose cleaner. It is known for its excellent degreasing properties and is often used in the industrial and manufacturing sectors to clean and degrease machinery and equipment. Additionally, white spirit is used as a solvent in the production of varnishes, paints, wood preservatives, paint thinners, and general-purpose cleaners. Its ability to dissolve oil-based substances makes it a versatile and effective cleaning and thinning agent. Below are the typical specifications for White Spirit exported by Polestar Worldwide General Trading LLC.
